

FROM THE DESK OF

SANTA CLAUS

Dear

Here at the North Pole everyone is very busy getting prepared for Christmas Eve. The elves have been making lots of toys in the workshop, the reindeers are busy exercising and getting fit for their long journey and Mrs. Claus is making sure that we are all warm and cozy and have lots of yummy things to eat!

I have heard that you have been very good this year and have played nicely with the presents I delivered last year. I know that you would enjoy something different to play with so I have asked the elves to look in the workshop to find a present that we think you will like.

On Christmas Eve the elves and Mrs. Claus finally relax and wait for me to return when I tell them all about my adventures - I hope I don't get stuck in a chimney again this year!

I am sure that you will have a wonderful Christmas and that you will continue to be good next year so that I can come and visit you again.
